

LAY A LITTLE ASIDE EACH WEEK

YOU CAN Save Something and the Amount you save is not so important as the fact that you are saving systematically.

Start this week. The habit will soon grow on you and you will be agreeably surprised at the amount you are drawing interest on at the end of a year.

We Pay 4% Interest on Savings Accounts.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK

Tolu, Kentucky

Local News

—W. O. Tucker undertaker and embalmer.

Mr. Thomas Stephens went to Evansville Friday.

Mr. Bert Bouter, of Crayne, was in the city Tuesday.

Judge E. J. Travis went to Bell's Mines Tuesday on business.

Mr. J. O. Cuyler made a business visit to Mexico Tuesday.

Mr. Everett Reed went to Blackford Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Townsend, of Sturgis, who have been visiting friends in the city, returned home Monday.

Miss Maryam Pierce, who has been teaching music at Hazard, arrived home Saturday to spend the holidays.

Miss Viola Higham, who is attending school at Lexington, will arrive Friday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bigham.

Mr. W. T. Terry of Forest Grove was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. J. M. Baker of Route 1 was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. F. L. Harpersdale was in Lassieville Tuesday.

Mr. J. I. Clement drove a fine lot of fine white-faced cattle for market last week.

Mr. Josh Hamilton, of Hurricane, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. W. R. Spence visited the family of his son in law, J. C. Reed at Princeton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn and daughter, Miss Atrell, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Conger of Route 5 were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. G. W. Reid went to Fredericksburg Tuesday to spend a few days.

Mr. G. W. Tucker of the Hurricane section, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. W. E. Spence of Copperas Springs, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Virgil Cook, of Hebron, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. C. H. Fairchild, who operates a spar mine near Salem, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Joseph Hughes, wife and three children of Benfield, Ill., are expected to arrive this week to visit Mrs. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rankin.

Miss Marie Taylor, who is attending Ward-Belmont College at Nashville, will arrive this week to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Taylor.

Miss Stella Elkins, of Cleaton, and Miss Jessie Elkins, of Tolu, will arrive Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Elkins.

Mr. D. W. Stone made a business trip to Madisonville Monday.

Mr. Kelsey Walker of the Tribune section was in the city Friday.

Rev. W. T. Oakley filled an appointment at Wheaten Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Prince, of East Prairie Mo., is visiting the family of her grandfather, Granville Slaton.

Mrs. Galen Dixon and Mrs. Ruth Brown, of Tolu, were in Marion on Tuesday enroute to Evansville to do some Christmas shopping.

Mr. C. G. Thompson went to Hells Mines and Sturgis Tuesday on business.

Mr. M. H. Wall, Edwin Mills W. E. Crowders and Sol. Blue of Morganfield, were here Saturday to attend the cattle sale.

Miss Roberts Moore, who is attending college at Chicago, arrived home Monday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Dr. E. L. Moore and Mrs. Moore.

Mr. C. H. Newcom, of Owensboro, was in the city Friday shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. Gilbert Denney, who is attending the Military school at Nashville, arrived home last week to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Denney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodall and daughter, Miss Golda, of Zillah, Wash., are visiting friends and relatives here and in the country.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Brantley of Nunn's, Friday December 13, a boy baby.

County Clerk L. E. Guess spent this week at Tolu, visiting relatives and friends and also in duck hunting.

Mr. T. J. Sheamaker, of Crittenden Springs, was in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will U. Hughes, of Baker, were in the city shopping last Friday.

Mr. Freda Belt, who has been in Louisville for the past three months, taking a course of instruction in linotype operating, is at home to spend the holidays with the family of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Belt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cruce, of Crayne, were in Marion shopping last Saturday.

Mr. Henry Prince, of East Prairie Mo., was in Marion Monday to join his family. They will go to Sturgis to make their home.

Word has just been received here that Miss Elizabeth Dollar underwent an operation in a hospital at Abingdon, Virginia, last Thursday.

Mr. Eugene Summerville, who is attending the University of Louisville, will arrive home this week to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summerville.

Miss Mildred Summerville, who is teaching English in the Hazard High School, arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Summerville.

Mrs. Kate Goodloe went to Louisville Monday to spend a few days visiting friends and to do Christmas shopping.

Mr. G. B. Johnson went to Blackford Wednesday.

Messrs. T. E. Walker and H. A. Vinson went to Clay Wednesday.

Mr. W. B. Shoulders, of Central City arrived Wednesday to spend the Christmas holidays with friends here.

Attorney A. C. Moore and Judge J. W. Blue went to Grove Center Wednesday on a hunting trip.

Mr. Hodge McConnell of Shady Grove, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. Douglas Clement, of Shreveport, La., has arrived to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. J. H. Clement and Mrs. Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Love of Salem, were in the city Wednesday.

Dr. D. M. Daniel of the Weston section was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. W. R. Cruce of Crayne, was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Courtney Harris and Mrs. A. J. Tigner of Mexico, were in the city Wednesday shopping.

Mrs. Ethel Rogers and children, Mary and Randolph, of Mexico, were Marion visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. H. L. Sullivan will leave this week for Canton, Miss., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Elva Fritts.

Misses Zola and Nancy Mays of Rosebud section were in Marion on business Wednesday.

Mr. J. M. Hill and Miss Virginia of Tribune were in the city Wednesday.

Rev. W. H. Yates who has just closed a meeting at St. Johns, Kan., arrived home Tuesday to spend the holidays.

Misses Little Bradford, of Crayne, and Laura Meredith, of Mexico were Marion shoppers Wednesday.

Mrs. R. C. McMaster and daughter, Ruby, were in Marion Wednesday.

Mr. Ed McFee went to Cider Wednesday to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends.

Rev. James F. Price filled an appointment at Frances Monday.

Rev. H. C. Paris filled an appointment at Grand Rivers Sunday.

Rev. Robert Lear filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mr. J. H. Floyd left for Stincport, Ill., Monday to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ella McConnell of Cave Rock, who has been visiting Mrs. T. J. Alexander and family, left for home Monday.

Miss Vivian Stone, a Junior in the University of Kentucky at Lexington, will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone.

Miss Marie Lowery, who spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lowery, returned to her school at Post Oak Monday.

Rev. T. C. Boucher filled an appointment at Rock Springs church in Webster County, Sunday.

Mr. Eugene Graves who has been on an extended visit to Missouri, to see his uncles, has returned home.

Miss Gladys Graves will arrive from Graham Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Graves.

Mrs. J. B. Caron of Mt. Carmel who has been visiting relatives in the county, left for home Monday.

Mr. C. H. Hines, who spent the week end at home, left for Webster County Monday.

Rev. U. G. Hughes filled an appointment at Montgomery, Trigg County, Sunday.

Mrs. Cordova Tabor and little son, Edward Clifton, of Crayne, were in Marion Monday shopping.

More Moonshine.

What do the astronauts who say there is life on the moon think of the theory that the moon is made of green cheese?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Training of Highest Order.

Happy is the man who reverences all women because he first learned to worship his mother.—Hichter.

Most self-made men need alterations.

Happily, most of the assassins are bad shots.

It appears that the soviet is reforming to beat the ban.

The tall spin has been accountable for many a sad tale.

Among the handicaps of childhood is mother's bridge game.

If you can't spell "sophisticated," just use the word "fresh."

It has been our experience that the man who talks most says least.

Opposites attract. That's why a poor girl wants a rich man.

The way of the speed law transgressor is hard on the pedestrian.

To live to a ripe old age one must avoid being picked when green.

The man who wakes up and finds himself famous hasn't been asleep.

An apple a day will keep the doctor away—provided you are a good shot.

Leghorn hats are in vogue and leghorn eggs are just as popular as ever.

If all the rules in Russia were placed end to end they wouldn't reach far.

Why bother about the price of gasoline? Everybody's going to pay it, anyway.

However, some society leaders were high fliers before the airplane was invented.

A reformer is a person who thinks that something's wrong if there's nothing wrong.

Automobiles have become popular in Turkey. Now you'll hear of some real atrocities over there.

Somebody has a device to extract gold from smoke. But who's to furnish the poppy stuff?

Tenderloin steak is only 7 cents a pound in Argentina, but it's a long wet walk to get there.

The dove of peace is at last finding its wings, says Lloyd George. Presumably across its breast.

The per capita circulation, now down to $90.87, may eventually reach the sum that some of us have.

Anybody can be a millionaire now by going over to Russia and getting a half-dollar changed into rubles.

Radio phone concerto hardly ever keeps the neighbors awake. The photograph ought to be as considerate.

The richest woman in Great Britain has married. The groom is the recipient of many warm congratulations.

"Old-time Jockey Now Driving Taxi." The habit of cutting close around corners still survives, perhaps.

The dull season now being on, some correspondent has dug up the House of lords alive and well in a Siberian village.

The chief reason there's no chance of any action against tips is that tips are the only means of getting any action.

One disadvantage about feminine styles is that when very hot weather comes there is nothing left to be taken off.

When eminent human songbirds sing by radio the listener does not see the funny things they do with their mouths.

The trouble is, too blame many people regard themselves as naturally adapted for service as overseers and foremen.

The Washington Post says the nation's ego is its chief trouble. It looks to us as if the biggest fault is the nation's I quit.

Submarine chasers are being sold at ridiculously trivial prices. There is almost no demand for chasers of any sort these days.

Money to burn was the old-time expression for extravagance, but in these liquor-destroying days it should be turned money to pour.

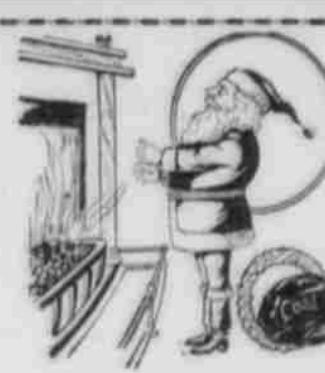

The United States is inclosing 10,000,000 Russians against five epidemic diseases, but, unfortunately, boisterism is not among the number.

It seems like a waste of time to worry about Russia and Germany when there are so many worries producing things in this country.

A Massachusetts man says that whistling will correct defective speech. Many musical people would rather have a man stutter than whistle.

The complaint registered in an exchange is that a lady costs almost as much as an automobile, isn't far out of the way if it means a runabout.

An attack on the theory of evolution represents a conservative inclination not to let the pressure of new problems take our minds off the old ones.

Useful Christmas Presents

Are always prized most highly. As a suggestion, why not send your friend a ton of our quality coal? We know it will be acceptable and be a gift in which the entire family will share. Just tell us where to send it and it will be there on time. Quality Coal with comfort in every piece.

No. 1 Lump Coal at Yard.....	25c
No. 1 Lump Coal, Delivered.....	27c
Best Nut Coal, Delivered.....	22c
Best Nut Coal, at Yard.....	20c

EGG COAL SAME PRICE AS LUMP

TELEPHONE No. 225

IRA T. PIERCE J. WESLEY LAMB
Marion Coal Co.
JOBBERS AND RETAILERS OF THE FAMOUS NO. 9 COAL

What Gift Can Compare With the Charm of Good Music?